BOOK AND JOB WORK NEATLY EXECUTED AT THE DISPATCH PRINTING HOUSE.

HIS SERIOUS MISHAP.

MR. HARVEY PUGH, OF MANCHESTER, HAS HIS ARM BROKEN.

FUNERAL OF DR. T. B. DORSETT.

Large Crowds Pay Tributes to Respect to the Dead Physician—Other Deaths and Funerals—Colored Undertaker Makes an Assignment.

Mr. Harvey Pugh, of Manchester, had his arm badly broken at Weldon, N. C., yesterday, and was brought home last evening. In some way the arm was caught in the machinery of his engine while in motion, and before he could remove it it was severely fractured. Dr. Green, of Weldon, was called to see him and treated him. He then took the train for home. Last night Dr. Lawrence Ingram was called to see him. It will be some weeks before Mr. Pugh can return to his work, though Dr. Ingram says he is doing as well as could be expected.

CROWDS AT HIS FUNERAL. The popularity of Dr. Thomas P. Dorsett, whose death occurred at his home, No. 123 east Thirteenth street, Thursday afternoon, was in a measure attested yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock when hundreds of people gathered at the home to attend his funeral service. The house and yard would not hold the people who gathered to pay their last tribute of respect and affection to the dead physician. The exercises were simple and impressive. The ministers who officiated were Revs. C. N. Van Houten and Benjamin Dennis. Afterwards the cortege moved slowly across the river to Hollywood Cemetery, where the remains were placed for the final and long sleep.

The funeral of Mrs. Ann Watkins, an estimable lady of Chesterfield county, near Bethel church, who died Thursday morning, took place from Bethel yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. B. H. Winfree, and the interment was made in the church burying-ground.

Intelligence has reached this city of the death of Mr. Joseph Puckett, of Chesterfield county, near Swift Creek, Thursday afternoon. He was in the 78th year of his age. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from Hopewell church.

FUNERAL DIRECTOR ASSIGNS. James H. Cunningham, a colored funeral director of this city, has filed a deed of assignment with the Clerk of the Hustings Court of this city. Judge James M. Gregory and Mr. W. H. Garnett are named as trustees. The assignee states his liabilities at $2,000, mostly in outstanding notes, and assets at $750. He conveys all real estate and other property to the trustees for the benefit of his creditors. It is a very unusual thing for an undertaker to assign, and incidentally, it is a compliment to the Board of Health and a dot of the hat to the sanitary condition of the city.

Dr. John W. Bransford, of Bon Air, has enlisted in the United States navy as surgeon, and has been assigned to the auxiliary boat Gloucester, now fitting up at New York. Dr. Bransford was for a number of years a surgeon in the navy, but resigned at the time of his marriage. He is a brother of Mrs. William Cox and Mrs. J. W. Bransford, Jr., of this city.

PERSONALS AND BRIEFS. Mr. Fred Williams, of Newport News, is in the city visiting friends.

Mr. Lloyd B. Franklin left yesterday for a visit to Roanoke, Va.

The Hustings Court adjourned for the term yesterday.

Mr. Samuel W. Rudd, of Skunkquarter, is in the city visiting friends.

Mr. C. S. Wells, of this city, and A. A. Alvis, of Swansboro, who have been attending the Great Council of Red Men at Hampton, have returned home.

A very delightful reception was given at the residence of Mr. J. W. Smith, No. 611 Semmes street, Thursday night, in honor of the guest of the family, Mrs. J. P. Phelps, of West Virginia. Those guests of the evening were Misses Lena Woodfin, Jennie Carr, Lizzie Carr, Pearl Newell, Ester Wright, George Sanderson, and others. Refreshments were served by Messrs. George H. Tucker, Joe Betts, Smith, J. Woodfin, Newell, Duke, and Eddie Burnett.

Mrs. L. R. Thornhill had a good day yesterday, and seems now to be improving.

Interest is growing in the Schoolfield meeting, and last night a number of conversions were made. The revival is expected to close Sunday night.

Scott Parrish and Edith W. Parrish, his wife, 40 1/2 feet on south side of Nicholson street, 83 1/2 feet west of Hopkins, $95.

Same and L. W. Phillips and wife to same, 30 feet on south side Williams street, 156 feet west of Carter, $1,000.

Colonel Branch Has Volunteered. Colonel James P. Branch, for many years a resident of Richmond, but who is now living in New York, is in Richmond visiting friends. Colonel Branch was Lieutenant-colonel of the Cavalry Regiment when he resided here, and he is anxious to get back into the service. On his way to Richmond he stopped in Washington and tendered his services for any commission in the army the President might see fit to give him.

The Colonel's application was endorsed by Senators Murphy, Platt, Daniel, Hamann, and Stewart. President McKinley made for him endorsement on the application. "The War Department will please give special attention to this application and confer later with me about it."

For the Children. Pundita Ramabai, the Hindoo widow, who has done such an extensive work among the children in India, especially in the months of June, is in the city, and is in the city of the various Sunday schools, but for the city.

It is hoped that the same speaker will deliver an address at the 12 o'clock meeting at Broad-Street Mission, 712 east Broad street. All are invited.

To Young Men. Dr. W. R. L. Smith, pastor of the Second Baptist church, will preach a special sermon to young men Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

This Last Day. Two performances to-day—"A Hero in Rags," to-night—close the engagement of Miss Lillian Tucker and Charles C. Vaughn's Comedy Company at the Academy. The organization, during its stay at the Academy, has given admirable productions of many of the standard plays, and the engagement has been a success in every way, except financially, as the audiences have been small.

Change in Hour of Ball Game.

On account of the military reviews to be held at Broad-Street Park this afternoon, the game of ball at this park between the Marine Hotel and Jefferson Athletic Club teams will begin at 2:30 P. M., instead of 4:30, as first announced. The game is played for the championship of Virginia amateurs. The Citizens' Brass Band will furnish music through the entire game.

Operation Performed on Dr. Williams. Dr. W. C. Williams, resident physician at the Retreat for the Sick, son of Dr. J. W. Williams, was operated upon for appendicitis at 5 o'clock Thursday evening. He stood the operation bravely.

Dr. Williams is assistant professor for the Chair of Chemistry at the University College of Medicine.

Special Sermons by Dr. Witherspoon. Rev. Dr. Jere Witherspoon, pastor of Grace-Street Presbyterian church, will take for his subject to-morrow morning "The New Rule Installed," and at night "Christian Heroism." The Doctor, since he has been serving the Grace-Street church, has proved very acceptable to his people and bold in his preaching, and interesting discourses may be expected.

Jackson Ward Executive Committee. The Jackson Ward Democratic Executive Committee held a meeting at Powhatan Club Thursday night, and perfected plans for election-day. A number of volunteer workers were reported, and the Democrats will be well represented at each precinct.

There will be at least one more meeting of the committee before election-day.

There Will Be No Excursion. The excursion which was to have been given to Old Point to-day by the Junior Auxiliary of the Home for Incurables has been indefinitely postponed. For reasons not given the ladies who had the matter in charge have decided not to give the excursion.

Gone to Sell a Gold Mine. Judge Waddill left for Buckingham county yesterday one of the special commissioners in a sale of a gold-mine in that locality. The property is valued at $60,000.

Patriotism in Germany. (Pail Mail Gazette.) In Germany they teach patriotism in the popular schools; in England we do not at any rate, not officially. In Germany the Kaiser's birthday, the anniversary of Sedan, and other national landmarks are celebrated in the national schools. They have feasts and music and excursions, but the children have kept clearly before them the reason for their rejoicings. Indeed, the law impresses upon parents and children that all voluntary absence from these school feasts is an offence. There were parents who kept their children back especially from the Sedan commemoration, and this on conscientious grounds. But now no longer, "for," says the Magistrate, "any unexcused absence from patriotic festivals established by the school shall be considered as voluntary non-attendance, and inspectors, teachers, and the authorities concerned are hereby instructed to this effect."

Patriotism is a pedagogy, perhaps, but patriotism, none the less, and the children of a great empire might perhaps do well to take a leaf out of a book made in Germany. Let us imagine the astonishment of the English child if he were told that he was to have a holiday from the school on the day of some great event in our own history. But Germany has these patriotic school feasts, and France, the emblem of the republic in every school-room, because they actually imagine the patriot is made as well as born.

The Oldest Observatory. (Philadelphia Record.) The oldest observatory in the world is in China. Centuries and centuries before Europeans constructed astronomical instruments of metal this observatory had metal instruments of highest value, and they were known to be hundreds of years old in 1923.

The instruments in the Chinese observatory are marvelous works of art, and their beauty and boldness of design could not be duplicated to-day. The observatory itself stands higher than the city wall, and is square in shape, the beautiful astronomical instruments standing on platforms with no shelter, true to the Chinese idea of doing things by contraries. Entrance to the observatory from the front gate leads to a hall of rare proportions. Then comes a yard surrounded on three sides by one-story buildings and shaded by enormous trees. Here are two massive and valuable bronze instruments, exposed for centuries, but without a trace of rust or decay. In the Chinese observatory is a huge celestial globe, 7 feet 6 inches in diameter, having the planets and principal constellations shown by raised stars in yellow bronze, and there are also the proper walls, and the chocolate-brown body of the globe. There are eight instruments in all in the observatory, each worthy of special duty.
